

Environmental, Occupational Health and Safety Policy

Fujifilm Business Innovation (Thailand) Co., Ltd. aims to integrate an environmental conscious responsibility, consumer safety and retaining employee's healthy and safety into all our business processes. We will strive to take ownership to offer customers with eco-friendly products, services, and related information. We will continuous improvement our process to reduce a use of energy, natural resources, protect an environmental and eliminate a risk and unsafe condition in our workplace.

1. We will make all offices to be offices that least affect to the environment by applying Fujifilm technology and products to highest benefit. As well as the efficiency use of resources and energy, manage waste effectively, promote a use of environmental friendly product, in addition to the release of greenhouse gases into the lowest volume.
2. We will strive to offer an eco-friendly, high quality and safe products to our customers.
3. We will take ownership in waste management by collecting used products, consumables including parts to reuse or recycle under the resource recycling system of Fujifilm or legally disposed without leaving to be the customer burden including the environment.
4. We will fully comply in local, national, regional environment, occupational health and safety related legislation and regulations, Fujifilm Policy and including customers and stakeholder obligations which we subscribed.

5. We will periodical review our performance according to Environmental Occupational health and Safety Management System for continuous improvement.
6. We will explore our workplace to seeking for Occupational Health and Safety risks and improve to eliminate such risks. This is to prevent and reduce accidents, illnesses, as well as diseases that may causes from work.
7. Supervisors, as well as executives at all levels, are committed to encourage to get employee participation in providing Environment, Occupational Health and Safety suggestions, report risks in the workplace as well as providing consultations to lead to improvements
8. We will continue to promote and support all resources including manpower, time, budget, training, public relations to raising awareness about Environmental conservation, Occupational Health and Safety to all employees as well as striving to make it readily available to public.
9. All employees will fully participate in all practices to environmental conservation, occupational health and safety.

Announced on November 11, 2021

(Masaaki Yanagiya)
President

